

ELECT
MICHAEL B.
MOSKOWITZ
DISTRICT 2 COMMISSIONER

“On the Hyde Park Market Fiasco”

Well in case you haven't heard there will be a 42-story condominium, the highest erected structure in Fort Lauderdale, directly adjacent to the most historic structure in Ft. Lauderdale, the Stranahan House.

To think that a building under the zoning of RAC-CC (regional activity center – city center) could be juxtaposed to a structure with the most restrictive zoning of H1 is absolutely unbelievable.

On top of that, a 42-story building has virtually no compatibility with its surroundings, and the highest this building should have gone is 20 stories.

And congrats! We live in the only City in the United States that can't win a condemnation lawsuit for eminent domain purposes.

A lot of people call all this development “progress.” I call it “overdevelopment.”

Let's elect a Commissioner who isn't jaded, has energy and enthusiasm, and will ensure that the cronyism of the past remains in the past forever.

Let's elect a Commissioner who will do what's right, put constituents' desires first, and who will choose to save our City's history.

Let's elect a Commissioner who has the expertise to make optimal fiscal decisions for the City so our City will, in the future, have legs to stand on.

It's an easy decision. Elect me your City Commissioner.
